

The Descendants of the SA Family Founder COENRAAD (JACOBSZ) SCHEEPERS

(a) The founder of the South African family SCHEEPERS was Coenraad Scheepers son of Jacob SCHEEPERS. Coenraad was born in Gelderland and arrive at the Cape of Good Hope in 1699/1700 with his wife Teuntje GYSBERTUS and their eldest son Jacob. As early as 1702 he is recorded in the "Opgaafrol" as farming in Drakenstein, then a sub-district of Stellenbosch. In 1723 he was granted by Governor Mauritz Pasques de CHAVONNES, in freehold, the farm "De Liefde" on the banks of the Breede River in the 'Land van Waveren' in Drakenstein (some 6 miles from the present town of Wolseley) which he had for many years occupied. His second son Gerrit was baptized at the Cape on 5th September 1700 (Dooop Register-Cabo). After the death of his first wife he married on 13th March 1712, in Stellenbosch, Maria BOTHA, daughter of Friedrich BOTH (born 4th March 1653, in Wagenheim by Gotha in Germany, son of Michael BOTH and Susanna PAULUS) and Maria KICKERS of Amsterdam. Friedrich BOTH, who arrived at the Cape in 1691, was later known and signed himself as Frederik BOTHA and he was the founder of the South African founder BOTHA.

Coenraad (Jacobsz) SCHEEPERS is incorrectly referred to in the main South African genealogical source book, Coetzee DE VILLIERS "Geslacht Register der Oude Kaapsche Familien" (hereinafter referred to as the "G.R.") as the son of one Izaak SCHEEPERS of Rotterdam, stated to have arrived before 1688 with wife, name unknown and one son also Izaak. COENRAAD is shown as the second son, born at the Cape, who married Maria BOTHA, and Gerrit is shown as the third son also born at the Cape, who married Susanna BRUWEL. In fact, the present writers' researches show Izaak the second to have been the son of an Alwyn SCHEEPERS of Rotterdam; furthermore he only arrived at the Cape on the ship "Grimmesteyn" on 19th July 1712; his father Alwyn never visited the Cape. Coenraad was not his brother but, as stated, the son of a Jacob and, according to his will preserved in the Cape Archives, was born in Gelderland, not the Cape. Gerrit was also not a brother of Izaak, but the son of Coenraad by his first marriage to Teuntje GYSBERTS. Coenraad and Izaak were contemporaries at the Cape but probably not related. In other respects the G.R. account and genealogy are fairly accurate as far as they go.

In these tables the following have the meanings shown, viz.-Alex (Alexandria); Bn. (Born); Bapt. (Baptised); D.R. (Dooop Register, i.e. baptismal register); Geo (George); Gr.Rn. (Graaff Reinet); H.R.
