die, Lawrence Gum, signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Testator Lawrence Gum as his last will and Testament in the presence of us who at the said Testator's Request subscribed our names as witnesses in the presence of the said Testator Charles Sheiborn, James Green //

This Will was proved at London the seventeenth day of November in the year of our Lord One thousand Seven hundred and sixty two before the worshipfull Arthur Collier Doctor of Lawes and Surrogate of the Right worshipfull Sir Edward Simpson Knight Doctor of Lawes Master Keeper or Commissary of the prerogative Court of Canterbury lawfully constituted by the Oath of Catherine Gum widow the Relict of the deceased and sole executrix named in the said Will to whom Administration of all and singular the Goods Chattels and Credits of the said deceased was granted having been first sworn duly to administer. //

William Goostrey a Captain of His Majesty's Ship the Cambridge do make this my last will and Testament in manner following I give to Mary Pennystone Goostrey my daughter by Hannah Pennystone one thousand pounds Sterling the interest of it to be for her maintenance and the principal to be paid on the day of marriage or when she comes of age which ever first shall happen I give to Hannah Pennystone of Port Royal in Jamaica one hundred pounds Sterling to be paid her immediately if I should die in the West Indies otherwise to be remitted to her as soon as may be I give to my sister Lydia Goostrey one thousand pounds Sterling and to my sister Susy Goostrey five hundred pounds Sterling I suppose my self worth at this time the full of all these legacies if I am not or should not hereafter by any unforeseen turn in affairs my full intention is (as I think I am in duty bound) that the legacy to my daughter Mary Pennystone Goostrey first takes place and that none of the others are paid or even thought of till hers is settled as mentioned above or in case of deficiency as far as my fortune will go. should I be worth more at the time of my death than the legacies already named my will is that after they are all paid the remainder of my fortune should be equally divided between my daughter Mary Pennystone Goostrey my sisters Lydia and Susy Goostrey my sisters Sarah Mary and Elizabeth Goostrey and my sister Mrs. Tompkins my brother Green would not have been left out but that his circumstances put him far beyond my little fortune should my daughter Mary Pennystone Goostrey die before she either comes of age or is married my will is that her legacy be divided equally between my sisters Lydia and Susy Goostrey and my sisters Sarah Mary and Elizabeth Goostrey and my sister Mrs. Tompkins I leave my brother and my sister Lydia Goostrey

William Goostrey Esq

my joint Executors begging my friend Jasper Wall to assist in them in my affairs in this Island This is my last will and as my fortune is all personal it needs no witnesses made at Port Royal this 30th day of March 1762. W^m Goostrey.

Whoever opens this Will let them immediately look into the two supports of the Hall of my Bureau where I generally have Money, they are followed.

A Copy or rather an Original of the same date I have left in the hands of Mr. Jasper Wall of Kingston in Jamaica.

June 3. 1762.

I would have the expences of my daughter Mary Pennystone Goostrey's passage to England paid before any an legaries but her own that she may have what I have left her quite clear, W^m Goostrey.

I desire my Brother ~~to~~ may make my Estate a present of 50. pounds after my accounts are past if he finds he has taken proper care of my Affairs after my decease.
